

THE TOOTH FAIRY'S NOTE

Priya wiggled her loose tooth all day. Finally, it popped out!
She held it in her palm, grinning. "I lost my first tooth!"

Mom hugged her tight. "That's a big milestone," she said. They wrapped the tooth in a pink tissue and placed it under Priya's pillow.

But Priya couldn't sleep. Tomorrow is Mother's Day! Mom always holds my hand at the dentist. I want the tooth fairy to give her the money.

Quietly, she slipped out of bed. She found her crayons and paper. She wrote: 'Dear Tooth Fairy, please leave the coin with my mom. She holds my hand at the dentist. Love, Priya.'

She folded the note carefully and placed it under her pillow next to the tooth. Then she snuggled into bed, feeling happy.

Late that night, a tiny fairy with shimmering wings flew in through the window. She saw the note and smiled. She picked up the tooth and left a gold coin and Priya's note on Mom's pillow.

The next morning, Mom found a shiny coin and a little paper on her pillow. She read Priya's words. Tears of joy filled her eyes.

Mom rushed to Priya's room. "You are the sweetest girl," she said, hugging her. Priya grinned, her gap showing. "Happy Mother's Day, Mom!"
